Rockhampton Art Gallery

River City Kids

Built from the latest exhibition, Rockhampton: The forgotten port city, Rockhampton Art Gallery presents a week of art-making and activities at Stockland (opposite Cotton On).

Explore our river through old maps and photographs, build your own little boat and make lots of other cool things too!

Responsible supervision required.

21 - 25 September
10am - 2pm | FREE

Photo Wander: Documentary Photography for kids

Bring your camera or smartphone and explore our big river city. Group meets at Walter Reid Cultural Centre and slowly wanders along the paths to Rockhampton Art Gallery learning documentary photography basics along the way. The children will be accompanied by experienced Gallery staff at all times but must bring their own hat and drinking water.

Thursday 1 October | 10am – 12pm
Suitable for ages 10 and up (Max 10 participants)
Drop off: Ground floor, Walter Reid Cultural Centre
Pick up: Rockhampton Art Gallery

Wooden Boat Building

Look at the amazing ships and boats in the latest exhibition at Rockhampton Art Gallery and make your own wooden boat to float in the bath, creek, ocean or pool.

Friday 2 October | 10am – 11am | 1pm -2pm
Suitable for ages 5 – 12
(Supervision required for children under 8)
